

Contents

Introduction .....	iii
How to use this book .....	v
Unit 1 Review: How to Have a Conversation .....	1
This unit is about asking questions. Questions are the driving force of discussions. Whoever asks questions controls the conversation.
A. How to have a conversation
B. Speaking practice
Unit 2 Parts of a Discussion 1 .....	6
This unit introduces the most important ingredients of a discussion (opinions, reasons and examples) and provides a sample discussion outline.
A. What is a discussion?
B. Opinions, reasons and examples
C. Conclusion
Unit 3 Parts of a Discussion 2 .....	14
This unit introduces brainstorming as an easy way to give longer answers.
A. Unpacking ideas
B. Brainstorming
Unit 4 Making Sense/Evaluating Opinions .....	20
This unit encourages students to reflect on (or pigeonhole) other people's ideas as a first step to uncovering their own opinions about an issue.
A. "That makes sense"
B. What does "making sense" mean?
Unit 5 What Are the Issues? .....	26
This unit helps students identify issues and find interesting topics.
A. Controversial issues
B. "For" and "against"

Unit 6	Persuasive Opinions .....	33
	This unit provides practice in defending one side of an issue.
	A. Persuasive words
	B. What makes opinions persuasive?
	C. Discussion: Farming village or resort?
Unit 7	Generalizing and Theorizing .....	41
	This unit teaches how to make generalizations, the weakness of generalizations and how to brainstorm a theory.
	A. Generalizations
	B. Brainstorming theories
	C. How to make a theory
	D. The structure of discussion: From "general" to "specific"
	E. Short discussion
Unit 8	First Major Discussion .....	50
	Students assign roles to each other and hold their own discussions.
	A. Getting ready
	B. Discussion time
Unit 9	Opposing Opinions and Rebuttal Reasons .....	57
	Students practice disagreeing and analyze the relationship between an opinion, a reason and a rebuttal.
	A. Disagreeing with your partner
	B. Rebuttals: Reasons why you disagree
	C. Four easy rebuttals
Unit 10	Disagreeing: A Path to New Knowledge .....	65
	Students practice disagreeing with conventional ideas.
	A. Phrases for disagreement
	B. The importance of having an open mind
	C. Playing devil's advocate	